

Elizabethton CTE Criminal Justice

Meet the Instructors:

Ryan Presnell

- B.A. Political Science & History from Furman University
- M.A. Criminal Justice & Criminology from ETSU
- Special Agent with the FBI

Kenneth Hardin

- ETSU, CTE Certification
- Carter County Sheriffs Department
- Elizabethton Police Department, Dare Officer, Patrol Supervisor, School Resource Officer

This program focuses around the entire criminal justice and private security field. Students will learn the duties of law enforcement officer in America, starting with patrol officer and ending with the forensic investigation skills of a state or federal special agent. The program will also include forays into the activities of lawyers, corrections officers and private security personnel.

Freshmen Courses Offered:

Criminal Justice I (formally Principles of Law, Corrections & Security) (Career Cluster: Law, Public, Safety, Corrections, and Security—Law Enforcement Services) Principles of Law, Corrections, and Security is an introductory course designed to prepare students to pursue careers in the fields of law enforcement, legal services, corrections, and security. Upon completion of this course, a proficient student will be able to identify careers in these fields, summarize the laws that govern the application of justice, and draw key connections between the history of the criminal justice system and the modern legal system.

Criminal Justice includes:

- Law Enforcement Services
- Legal and Corrective Services

In addition, students will model the professional, moral, and ethical standards required of professionals in the fields of law, legal services, corrections, and security.

Courses Offered:

- Criminal Justice I
- Criminal Justice II
- Criminal Justice III: investigation
- Pre-Law 1
- Pre-Law 2
- Dual Enrollment-Introduction to Criminal Justice through

Club Information

East Tennessee Criminal Justice Association

The purpose of the CSI Team is to allow students the ability to display the skills learned during the entire Criminal Justice curriculum and compete against other programs in the region. There are not regular meeting times. Most participants have taken Forensics and merely practice their skills the week before the competition that occurs in November of each school year.

